

I am NOT in favor of altering part 97. The 2 meter band is quite crowded and simplex frequencies are already difficult to locate. Sufficient spectrum already exists in those frequencies allocated by Part 97 for auxiliary operation. Additional spectrum for this purpose is not necessary.